

STUDY AT READING

ABOUT US

The University of Reading, established in 1892 as an extension college of the University of Oxford, has been at the forefront of UK higher education for nearly a century. Over the decades we have become innovators and pioneers, pushing academic boundaries and leading social change. From the creation of the now globally iconic Climate Stripes to pre-empting worldwide natural disasters, we are a leading university in climate science, working with governments and advising policymakers.

Our award winning Whiteknights Campus is also home to the triple-accredited Henley Business School, ranked 7th best business school in the UK* and with a campus based in EduCity, Iskandar, the University of Reading Malaysia offers students the "best of both worlds" – a world-class degree, delivered at a location that is convenient to them.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

The University has set entry criteria for all courses, and this may vary depending on which course you apply for. Some courses may require you to have previously studied a certain subject, or subjects, and you may also be required to obtain an English Language Test.

For certain applications the University is able to assess on a case-by-case basis, and so significant relevant work experience can in some cases be taken into account.

For full details of our country-specific entry requirements, please scan the QR code on the reverse.

INTERNATIONAL FOUNDATION PROGRAMME

Apply by submitting an application directly via our website, at reading.ac.uk/ifp

UNDERGRADUATE

You can apply for our Integrated Foundation Programmes as well as our Undergraduate degree programmes through the UCAS website: www.ucas.com

POSTGRADUATE

The quickest and easiest way to apply is through our online application service at www.reading.ac.uk/pgapply

If you are applying to follow a research programme, you may also be asked to include a research proposal with your application.

FEES AND SCHOLARSHIPS

We also offer international students a range of generous scholarships to help support your studies. The opportunities for funding that are available depend on your nationality and the course you wish to study. All of Reading's scholarships are listed at www.reading.ac.uk/fees-and-funding

LOCATION AND CAMPUS LIFE

- A Truly Global Community – we have more than 4,500 international students from around 160 countries.
- Enjoy Beautiful Surroundings – our Whiteknights campus is one of Britain's top Green Spaces receiving a 14th Green Flag Award in 2024.

- A Vibrant Community – we offer a wide range of facilities to help you study, have fun and relax. Our cafeterias and restaurants on campus provide for different dietary needs. There are two supermarkets on campus in addition to a variety of places to eat, drink and socialise.
- The Students' Union – there are over 150 clubs and societies, and if there isn't an existing society for your interest, you can always start one.
- Sports Park – as a student at Reading you will have access to the extensive sports facilities on offer. Many of our students have gone on to compete at high levels, including the Olympics. There are courts, pitches and playing fields for a wide range of sports, a rowing club, as well as a fully-equipped sports centre with gym.

ACCOMMODATION

- Located either on the main Whiteknights campus or within a 10-15 minute walk of main campus buildings.
- Choose from different room types, catered or self-catered options and residency periods.

- Living in university accommodation also provides extra security, with all halls having regular security patrols and CCTV.
- 'Halls hotline' available 24/7, 365 days of the year ensuring any halls related issues are dealt with quickly and efficiently.

- Communal areas and hall committees which help create a sense of community and ensure a friendly and sociable environment – a great place to meet new friends.

“The campus has a great learning environment and it is close to Reading town centre. I enjoy living in Reading because there are many shops, restaurants and you can find almost everything you need in Reading. It is also close to London and the major international airports.”
